

ABILITY: CAN, COULD, BE ABLE TO

Put a check mark on the lines to the right if you got a correct answer.

Write your answer in the space provided or on a separate sheet of paper.

Complete the advertisement. Use the appropriate form of can, could, or be able to with each verb. Use can or could when possible.

1) Think about your last exercise program: _____ you _____ time for
1. (find)
the program in your busy schedule? _____ the program _____ your
2. (hold) interest for longer than a few weeks? If you answer "no," you're not alone. There are many programs, but most programs _____ people's fitness needs.
3. (not /meet)

Kathy Swift's Exercise Program is different. It has helped many people get in shape, and it _____ you, too! We spoke to someone who tried it and
4. (help)
loves it. Here's what she said: "I _____ why so many people love the
5. (understand)
Kathy Swift program. I tried other programs, but I _____ with them for
6. (not /stick)
more than a week or two. I want _____ at any time. With Kathy Swift,
7. (exercise)
I _____ exercise into my regular routine."
8. (fit)

2) _____ you _____ ? If you join Ken's Cooking Club, in just a few
1. (cook)
weeks you _____. Here is what some of our satisfied students said:
2. (cook)

"I've only had two classes, but already I _____ a delicious meal.
3. (make)
By the holidays next month, I think _____ a dinner party and
4. (have)
invite all my friends."

"When I was younger, I _____ pretty well. But in college, I lived in a
5. (cook)
dorm without a kitchen, so I _____. After college, I wanted to
6. (not cook)
_____ my friends and family for a meal, but I _____
7. (invite) 8. (not do) anything in the kitchen. My cousin told me about Ken's, and now I _____
9. (cook)
better than anyone I know!"

