

THE FIRE – PART 1

It's summer and Mr. And Mrs. Wilson are on vacation with their children Rick and Jimmy. They are all staying in their house at the beach in South Carolina. Mrs. Wilson is sitting and writing a letter. Mr. Wilson is working in the backyard. He's watering the plants and mowing the grass. Suddenly, Rick comes running out of the house. He looks really scared and worried. He tells his parents that the house is on fire and takes them upstairs right into* one of the bedrooms.

Grass - Mow – Suddenly – run out – scared – worried – upstairs- into - Stay

Now, Mrs. Wilson is worried and scared too and doesn't know what to do. Mr. Wilson gets out of the house and sees his son Jimmy standing at one of the windows ready to jump. Mr. Wilson asks him to jump onto one of the bushes.

get out of - stand - ready - onto - bushes

Jimmy is still at the window but he doesn't jump. He is quite scared and starts to cry. Then, they hear sirens and a big red fire truck arrives. Two firefighters take a long ladder out of the truck. They carry it to the house and lean it on the wall under the window of Jimmy's bedroom. One fireman rushes to go up the ladder. He reaches Jimmy and brings him down.

Quite - sirens - fire truck - firefighters - ladder - carry - lean - under - rush - reach - bring
